

LREC2008 – W23 – Workshop on Natural Language Processing resources, algorithms and tools for authoring aids

June 1st, 2008 – Reda 4 – Morning Session

WORKSHOP PROGRAMME

Introduction by the workshop organizers

9.00 – 9.30 Natural Language Processing resources, algorithms and tools for authoring aids
Robert Dale (Macquarie University), Aurélien Max (LIMSI, Université Paris-Sud 11), Michael Zock (LIF)

Invited talk

9.30 – 10.30 Authoring tools developed at Microsoft: that was then, this is now
Takako Aikawa (Microsoft Research)

10.30 - 11.00 Morning coffee break

Oral presentations

11.00 - 11.25 Proposal for a Foreign Language Drafting Aid
Elliott Macklovitch and Guy Lapalme (RALI, Montréal University)

11.25 - 11.50 Language-aware text editing
Cerstin Mahlow, Michael Piotrowski and Michael Hess
(University of Zurich)

11.50 - 12.15 Enhancing the OpenOffice.org Word Processor with Natural Language Processing Capabilities
Thomas Gitzinger (Karlsruhe University) and René Witte
(Concordia University)

- 12.15 - 12.40 A Personalized Recommender System for Writing in the Internet Age
Mari Carmen Puerta Melguizo, Olga Muñoz Ramos, Lou Boves
(Radboud University), Toine Bogers and Antal van den Bosch
(Tilburg University)
- 12.40 - 13.05 Towards Automatic Document Quality Assurance
Neil Newbold and Lee Gillam (University of Surrey)

Panel discussion

- 13.05 – 13.30 Possible future directions for authoring aids